

April 3, 2008

CASE

SILASTIC SYNOVITIS

CASE

HYPERTROPHIC OSTEOARTHROPATHY

CASE

Ankylosing Spondylitis

CASE

FLORID REACTIVE
PERIOSTITIS

CASE

LOA LOA

(AFRICAN EYE WORM)

CASE

History: 52 year old female who noticed a non-painful lump over medial aspect of the left sternoclavicular joint.

Condensing Osteitis

CASE

36 y.o. female with right knee pain for 1 month began since squatting. No trauma/injury.

Localized Nodular Synovitis

CASE

Patient with chronic ACL tear

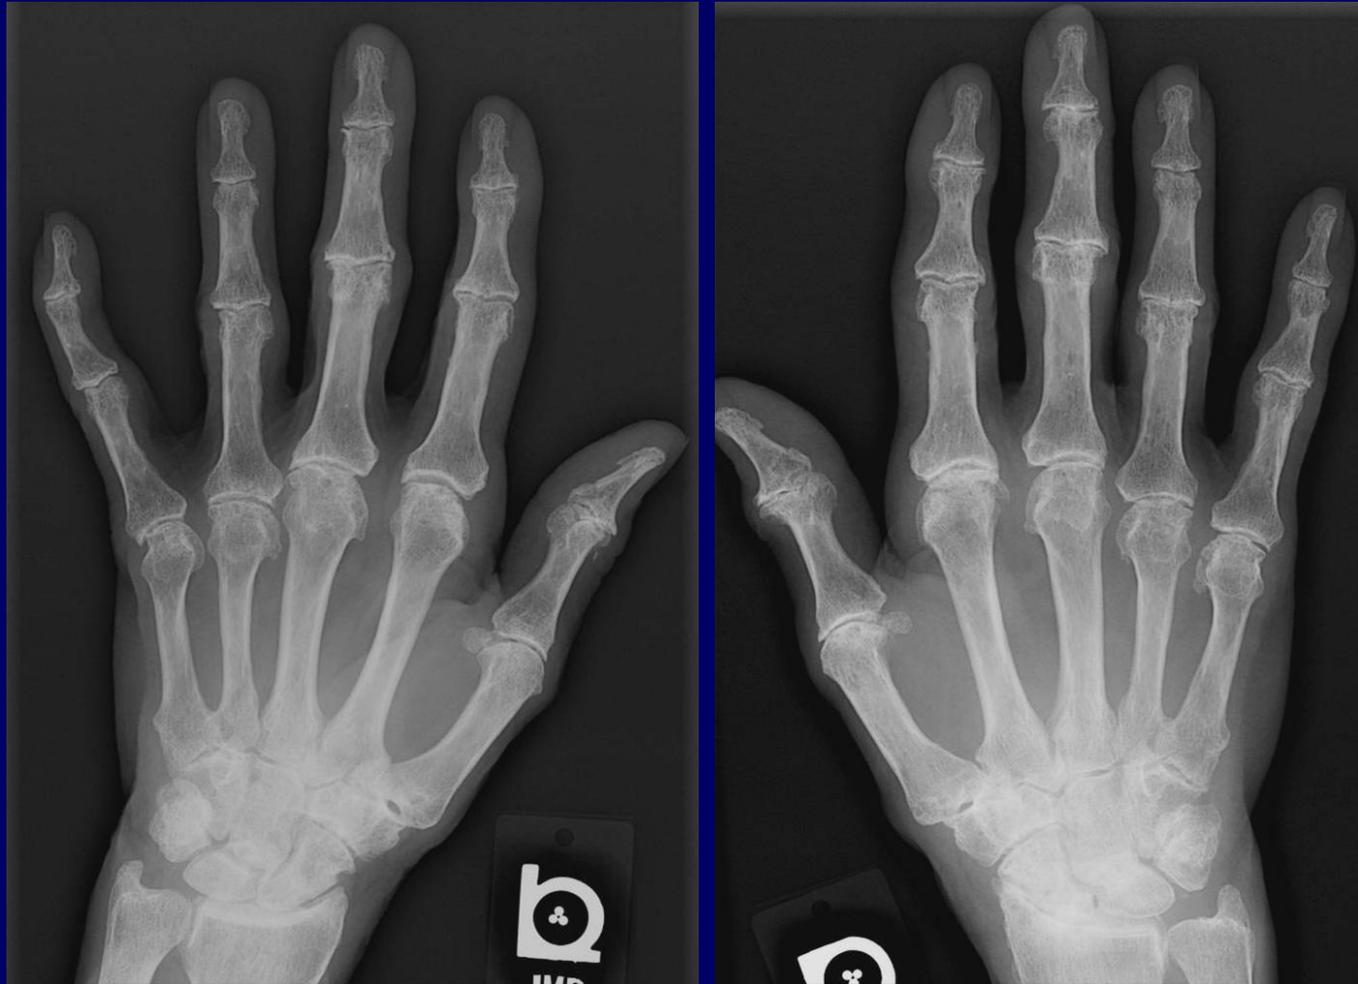

Ramp Meniscal Tear

CASE

SONK

CASE

HEMOCHROMATOSIS

CASE

67 year old female with h/o resection
right gluteal mass with radiation

Insufficiency Fracture

CASE

Os Intermetarseum

CASE

67 year old female with h/o resection
right gluteal mass with radiation

Radiographs 7
months apart

Rapidly Destructive Hip Disease

OSTEOPOIKILOSIS

CASE

CPPD Crystal Disease

CASE

8 yo girl fell 2 ft from bed, knee hit chin, and neck snapped back!

Idiopathic Calcific Discitis

CASE

Another Example

A five-year-old boy with neck pain, torticollis, and arm pain. There had been numbness radiating down the forearm into the thumb, index, and long fingers. Computed tomography and MRI revealed a calcified disc herniated into the spinal canal with canal compromise of 60%.

